

WE ARE THE FUTURE – COMPETITION

---

The deadline of 6th International Illustration Competition “We are the future” has been extended to 30th September 2013. The competition is promoted by Fondazione Malagutti onlus in partnership with AI – the Italian Associazione Illustratori and in collaboration with the Editing Company “Red Publishing”: the competition is open to all foreign and Italian professional illustrators. The competition aims at enhancing the ability and the sensibility of illustrator in representing children's world, giving a particular attention to social subjects and to the respect of the Rights of the Child.

The artist winning the competition will be awarded a cash prize of €1200,00 and his/her illustration will be the official image for his/her illustration will be the official image for posters and participation form concerning 12th edition of International Drawing Competition, which is addressed to children 3 to 14. He/she will receive a free copy of the workbook. The second-place contestant will receive €500,00 and a free copy of the workbook. For the following three selected artists, free registration to Association of Illustrators and a free copy of the workbook. For all participants, 50% discount on the publications made by AI-the Italian Associazione Illustratori.

For further information:

http://www.dirittiacolori.it/en/competitions\_illustrators\_vi\_rules