Fondazione Malagutti onlus was born in 2002, in Curtatone (Mantua) to give its support and solidarity to children and vulnerable people. It proposes initiatives for the prevention and the education of young people with a specific care to their creative, expressive and cultural development. Fondazione promotes some projects addressed to children's rights as well as their education and well-being.

In its protected facilities, it welcomes children, teens and mothers with their sons/daughters without any discrimination about their ethnic group, religion or nationality; they are often victims of abuses, brutalities, mistreatments or they have no parental references.

It works for the First Aid H24 service addressed to emergency cases pointed out by Police and Institutions.
